

Landrum certified to offer human resource training

Pensacola, Fla. - Landrum Human Resource Companies has been certified by the Human Resource Certification Institute as an approved provider.

The program allows Landrum to award recertification credit for continuing education to human resource professionals who have earned the designation of Professional in Human Resources, Senior Professional in Human Resources and Global Professional in Human Resources.

Landrum offers more than 20 professional training seminars throughout the year in areas like management, safety, customer service and business development. Business owners, managers and employees can earn recertification points and continuing education credits by attending the seminars that are approved by HRCI.

Details: Visit www.LandrumHR.com, or call 476-5100.